

Wright State launches cyberbullying research

 webapp2.wright.edu/web1/newsroom/2015/11/24/wright-state-launches-cyberbullying-research/

November 24, 2015

Wright State University researchers are developing new software to analyze social media posts in an effort to identify and reduce cyberbullying. Researchers are working with Beaver Creek High School on the project.

Watch the report from WHIO News Center 7.